PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Lord, you give us each day and breath to serve you, and with this precious time we throw ourselves to sin and vanity. In one turn, we are tremendous lovers of ourselves and little else. And in another turn, we employ so many means and methods to destroy the self. We lack gratitude, and forget your goodness to us. We have not loved our neighbor as we should, and too often seek to be unlike you. Teach us the sacred lesson of humility lifted up, of sacrifice that brings life, of grace that reconciles, and of the power of your Spirit to overcome our sinfulness. We place our trust in you and you alone, O Christ. As we remember your arrival in Jerusalem, arrive yet again in this holy space. Amen.
